

מִלְכָה of the Week

~ שְׁמִירַת הַלְּשׁוֹן ~

Sign Language

You are forbidden to tell לְשׁוֹן הָרָע through hints and signs, hand or finger motions and facial expressions.

“Mr. Weiss is a considerate fellow...Sure he is!” (said in a sarcastic tone of voice)

“Joe is very honest (cough, cough!)”

“Sara is extremely clever.” (with a wink of the eye)

“I didn’t actually say anything bad about the fellow,” does not alter the fact that you have still communicated a derogatory message.

When You Include Yourself

Adding something derogatory about yourself when you make negative remarks about others does not undo the fact that you have spoken לְשׁוֹן הָרָע. This includes instances when you mention that you and a friend both did the exact same action or have the same fault, and you begin by talking about yourself.

“Ben and I both used to take sweets from the shop without paying.”

“Nobody in our group studies Torah properly.”

“I don’t give enough tzedaka, but neither does Mr. Stern.”

פרק א' of the Week

Yehudah Ben Teima said:

Be

*bold as a leopard,
light as an eagle,
swift as a deer
and strong as a lion*

to carry out the will of your Father in Heaven.
